פרשת ויחי

Parashat Va-y'hi

16 Tevet, 5770 / January 2, 2010
 Triennial Cycle III: Genesis 49:27-50:26
 Humash Etz Hayim, page 305
 Haftarah: 1 Kings 2:1-12, page 312

1. ( 50:15-17) When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back for all the wrong that we did him! So they sent this message to Joseph, "Before his death your father left this instruction: So shall you say to Joseph, 'Forgive, I urge you, the offense and guilt of your brothers who treated you so harshly.' Therefore, please forgive the offense of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph was in tears as they spoke to him.

2. (50:18-21) His brothers went to him themselves, flung themselves before him, and said, "We are prepared to be your slaves." But Joseph said to them, "Have no fear! Am I a substitute for God? Besides, although you intended me harm, God intended it for good, so as to bring about the present result—the survival of many people. And so, fear not. I will sustain you and your children." Thus he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

Darshan - Harry Cornbleet

What enabled Joseph to move beyond suffering, and seek reconciliation rather than revenge?

Why is it often difficult to free ourselves from unpleasant memories?

What can we learn from Joseph when struggling to free ourselves from past traumas?

“...Everything can be taken from a man but one thing; the last of the human freedoms—to choose one’s attitude in any given set of circumstances, to choose one’s own way.” (Victor Frankl, Man’s Search for Meaning)

Sunday Night @ the Movies

Movie followed by a discussion. Sixty Six, Bernie’s Bar Mitzvah vs. the 1966 World Cup Finals- Bernie Rubens wants his bar mitzvah to be a blowout event and is horrified when he learns that his parents have accidentally scheduled it for the day of the 1966 World Cup final, and will not change the date. His troubles are set against a family distracted by the threat of losing their business and their wayward older son. Besides his eccentric family, Bernie has encounters with his blind rabbi and his soccer-fan doctor as the film builds to its conclusion. Humor competes with frustration in this “deeply touching film about the ups and downs of childhood--as well as the joys and sorrows that come with adulthood.”

Discussion follows on Family Dynamics and Relationships.

Adult Education

Lunch and Learn

Sunday, January 10, 12:30 - 3:00 pm

Biblical History Through Ancient Inscriptions and Coins - Speaker: Allen Binder, Jewish Historical Coin Collector. This talk will use ancient inscriptions and coins to bring Jewish Biblical history to life and to put it into context during a vital 1300-year period. Beginning in 1200 BCE, engraved stone monuments documented a Jewish presence in the Land of Israel. During the Second Temple period and later, Jewish governments and kings issued coins recording Jewish life and providing important information about major political events. This evidence of Jewish life transforms Jewish history into a coherent picture anchored in place and time.

Monday, January 11, 7:30 pm

Perkei Avot Discussion Group Informational Meeting
Informational meeting for a new discussion group on “Perkei Avot”, a tractate in the Talmud that contains ethical sayings of our fathers. Come to this meeting to help shape the approach and help select the weekly discussion day and time. The plan for the discussion group is to use a basic Pirkei Avot text with commentary and use a weekly topic based discussion format, led by a facilitator. The facilitator role would rotate through the group allowing everyone who wished to lead, the opportunity to do so.

Tuesday, January 19, 7:30 pm

Conversations in Jewish Learning

“Three Women and a Talmud: The Story of Rashi’s Daughters Concludes with Book Three—Rachel” – Speaker: Author Maggie Anton - Maggie Anton will speak about the research behind her best-selling "Rashi's Daughters" trilogy, set in the household of the great medieval Talmud scholar who had no sons, only daughters.. She'll discuss: What was life like for Jewish women in 11th century France? Were Rashi's daughters really learned? Did they actually wear tefillin? Why should a 21st century Jew care about Rashi and his daughters?? Book sales and signing follow the talk
