The online portion of the Purim Silent Auction will close next Friday, March 22 at 11 a.m. Many items, including restaurant gift cards, books, and shows are being offered on the online site on a "buy now" basis. This means that you may purchase these items now at below the market price without having to engage in a bidding war. Check out the website at www.beth-david.org/2019-silent-auction before it is too late.

The Silent Auction will resume live at the Purim Carnival on March 24. We are offering over 100 items including vacation stays, opera and other show tickets, an Israeli stamp collection, fine dining certificates, a variety of classes, Bourbon Tasting with Rabbi Alpert and Danny Kischel, a Genuine Westeros Dinner with Rabbi Pressman and Helen Tieger, a Shabbat Dinner at the Burak's, and many more.

Can't make the Purim Carnival on March 24? No need to worry. You can place "proxy bids" online that allow you to specify your maximum bid. The system will automatically bid for you against others during the online phase, and we will have a representative making everyone's proxy bids for them on the day of the auction.
